Marcia, Marcia, Mangia!

Recently we paid a visit to Marcia Selden Catering & Event Planning in Stamford, CT. We had a blast talking with this fantastic group of women, who throw all kinds of creative, exciting and delicious parties. Founded by Marcia 30 years ago and joined by her talented daughter and passionate chef Robin, this team of hardworking planners and food prep experts delivers delicious menus to the best events in Fairfield County, New York City and beyond. Check out their blog, The Party Girls, for tips on planning your next celebration! This week they are featuring "horoscope cupcakes"...how about baking some for your favorite Leos?
