

1 The newlyweds 2 Father of the bride, Steve Simmons, and Sara 3 Dave Mahoney, Amanda Wilson, Jarrett McGovern 4 Lucy Dicker 5 Reed Whitten, Will Olenick 6 Peter, Laurie and Tori Grauer 7 The reception tent 8 Amy Colica, Tori Grauer, Anne Wallach, Theresa Berkery, Julia Simmons, Sara, Caroline Simmons, Mimi Whitten, Annie Berkery, Gracie Savage, Danielle O'Connor, Alissa Zachary 9 Tom and Nancy Ireland with Sean and Ginny Day 10 The bride and groom leaving the reception

|| SARA LOUISE SIMMONS & PHILIP KEY BARTOW III ||

Sara Simmons and Philip Bartow shared a lifelong love of Martha's Vineyard, having spent their childhood summers on the island. So it was very fitting that the couple met over drinks in Edgartown. Their romance returned to the mainland with them, and the couple dated for one year before getting engaged. Philip proposed in Santa Barbara overlooking the Pacific Ocean. Reverend Chip Seadale officiated at the ceremony at the Old Whaling Church in Edgartown. The reception followed at the Simmons family home.

The bride, daughter of Steven and Eileen Simmons of Greenwich, graduated from Greenwich Academy, Cornell University and Hunter College. Sara is a teacher at the Episcopal School in New York.

The groom, son of Philip and Madeleine Bartow of New York, graduated from Westminster School, Williams College and Columbia University. Philip works for Spring Hill Capital in New York City.

The newlyweds honeymooned in Bora Bora. They call Manhattan home. G