CELEBRATING OUR FABULOUS READERS' FAVORITES IN

170+ CATEGORIES!

OPPOSITE PAGE: COURTESY OF TERRAIN; BARTACO; VENERA ALEXANDROVA; FJORD FISH MARKET

From garden inspiration to waterfront dining, these standout local favorites—Terrain, bartaco, Rowayton Seafood and Fjord Fish Market—capture the best of the season in Fairfield County.

Cheers to summer, best celebrated with freshly shucked oysters and water views.

FOOD TRUCK // COPPS ISLAND OYSTER SHACK

Parked at marinas in Stratford and Norwalk, Copps Island Oyster Shack has earned a devoted following for its lobster rolls, ultra-fresh oysters and raw bar classics. The family-run favorite lives by its "boat to table" philosophy—growing, shucking and serving its own oysters with the kind of dock-to-tray freshness that tastes unmistakably like summer on the Connecticut coast. In Norwalk, live music and sunset views add to the scene; in Stratford, the quieter marina setting feels like a hidden gem locals almost want to keep to themselves.

FOOD & DRINKS

"Where should we eat?" may be the most commonly repeated phrase in Fairfield County—and lately, the answers just keep getting better. The challenge isn't finding somewhere good; it's narrowing down the options. From new additions and old-school institutions to neighborhood gems locals almost hesitate to share, this year's winners reflect how we really eat now: spritzes on sunny patios, impeccable Italian meals served with a side of trivia, Chinese takeout on regular rotation and lobster rolls worth going out of your way for. These are the spots people return to again and again—the standing reservations, the comfort orders and the places locals insist you absolutely have to try.

Tony Capasso, maître d' and master of the room at Tony's at the J House.

PHOTOGRAPHY: KYLE NORTON

BEST SERVICE //
TONY'S AT THE J HOUSE
Which Greenwich restaurateur is known for remembering your name, checking on every table and casually quizzing diners between bites of steak and pasta? The answer, of course, is longtime maître d' Tony Capasso. After decades in the restaurant business—and since opening Tony's at the J House in 2019—Capasso has brought his signature warmth and throwback hospitality to the dining room, making guests feel like regulars from the moment they sit down. The expertly cooked steaks, classic Italian favorites and strong martinis certainly help—but it's Tony himself, working the room with his trademark charm and rapid-fire trivia questions, who keeps people coming back.

The steaks may be the headliners, but starters like fresh lobster and crab prove that Roots Ocean Prime is just as serious about seafood.

NEW RESTAURANT // ROOTS OCEAN PRIME

At Roots Ocean Prime, dinner comes with a little old-school swagger. Servers in white jackets glide through the dining room, martinis arrive ice-cold with backup frozen glasses waiting in the wings, and the steaks are exactly what you want them to be: perfectly cooked and worthy of the hype surrounding Darien's buzzy newcomer. Then there's the giant sundae: a towering, slightly over-the-top finale that practically guarantees at least one neighboring table will ask, "Wait…what is that?"

FROZEN YOGURT

"My love of froyo existed long before the current buzz, and 16 Handles gets that. No trend-chasing, no fuss. For me, just the original tart with a swirl of mint chip, a handful of strawberries and carob chips, always. Conveniently located in downtown Fairfield. Easy parking, the vibe is good, and it's the spot where everyone walks out the door looking genuinely happy. The 16 Handles froyo joy is real."

BRUNCH + CAFÉ BISTRO // TERRAIN

A trip to Terrain in Westport is always a good idea. You may come for the endless home and garden inspiration, but the café has become just as much of a destination—especially on a leisurely weekend when the only real agenda is brunch, browsing and possibly leaving with a new plant you definitely didn't plan on buying. Located within the dreamy lifestyle store, the restaurant serves beautifully plated seasonal dishes in a setting that feels equal parts greenhouse, garden party and welcome escape from real life.

HOTEL RESTAURANT // ARTISAN

Once the weather warms up, a table on the patio at Artisan becomes highly coveted real estate. Tucked into the charming courtyard at the Delamar Southport, it's the kind of place to slow down and stay a while—lingering over coastal-inspired dishes, indulging in crisp glasses of wine and cocktails that taste even better outdoors. On summer evenings, with string lights overhead and another round on the way, it's easy to forget you're only a few minutes from home.

MARCIA SELDEN CATERING
For decades, family-run Marcia Selden Catering has been behind some of the area's most memorable weddings, galas and backyard celebrations, pulling off events that somehow feel both polished and deeply personal. Guests may remember the beautiful tables or impeccable service, but what really sets the Selden team apart is their ability to make events feel warm, lively and genuinely fun.

FARMERS' MARKETS + LOCAL GOODS // WESTPORT FARMERS' MARKET

A quick stop at the Westport Farmers' Market rarely stays quick. One minute, you're picking up tomatoes, the next you're leaving with just-baked bread, fresh flowers, local honey and ambitious plans to cook something seasonal. Beloved for its mix of regional farms, artisanal vendors and strong sense of community, the market has become as much a weekend ritual as a place to shop. On any given Thursday, you'll find chefs, families and devoted regulars weaving through the stalls with coffee in hand, catching up with vendors they've known for years.
